

bound book, open to public inspection; he shall attest all laws or ordinances, and cause copies of the same to be posted in not less than two of the most public places in said town; he shall file and keep all original papers entrusted to his care; he shall act as treasurer to said corporation; he shall keep an accurate account of the receipts and disbursements of all monies and funds of the said corporation in a well-bound book, and shall pay out the same only on the order of the chairman, after the bills thereupon or orders have been passed by a majority of the commissioners; he shall report annually in writing to the burgess and commissioners a detailed statement of the said corporation, showing the several sums of money received and expended, from whom received, and for and on what account, and to whom expended and paid, and shall cause not less than two copies of said statement to be posted up in the two or more most public places in the town; he shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed for him by this section or the ordinances of said commissioners; he shall receive such compensation for his services from the funds of the corporation as said commissioners may, by their order or ordinance, fix; and the said commissioners shall require said clerk and treasurer to give bond, with security, to be approved by the said burgess, for the faithful performance of his duties as such, which bond shall be made to the said corporation.

153. The said commissioners may meet as often for the transaction of the business of said corporation as shall be required for the transaction of such business, but not less frequently than once in every three months; they shall elect one of their number to act as chairman, and may pass ordinances for the rules and regulations of their sessions and members not inconsistent with this sub-title of this article.

Ibid.

154. A majority of the commissioners shall have power to enact and pass all such laws and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws of this State, or of the county, or this sub-title of this article, as they may deem wise and expedient for the comfort, health, order, prosperity, peace and convenience of said town, and the inhabitants thereof; to open and establish, curb, pave and re-
