

under this sub-title of this article, and under the ordinances passed by said commissioners; and in the execution of the duties of his office, within the corporate limits of said town, he shall have all the powers and authority of a constable; he shall pay over to the clerk and treasurer all monies coming into his hands for and on account of said corporation; he shall be the collector of all taxes levied by said corporation, and shall collect said taxes by distress or execution in the same manner as the county taxes for Carroll county are now collected, and shall for that purpose have all the powers and indemnities in his office that the tax collectors of the county taxes of Carroll county now have; he shall, immediately upon the collection of any money for taxes, pay the same over to the clerk and treasurer of the corporation, and he shall be subject to suit on his bond and criminal prosecution as the tax collectors of Carroll county now are; he shall receive the same fees in the performance of his duties as bailiffs or constables do in like cases and for like services, and such compensation for the collection of taxes and other duties as shall be provided by ordinance of the corporation.

1884, ch. 509.

160. All taxes levied on property assessed as provided for by this sub-title of this article shall be a lien on the said property, real or personal, of the taxpayers of said town, respectively, until paid, and the burgess and commissioners shall charge interest on said taxes after thirty days from the time when such taxes are due and payable, and may also allow a discount not exceeding five per cent. for prompt payment thereof; and all taxes levied shall be collected by the corporation bailiff in the same manner that the county taxes of Carroll county are now collected; and all persons subject to the payment of such taxes shall have the same rights, privileges and remedies now enjoyed and possessed by persons subject to the payment of county taxes in Carroll county.

Ibid.

161. The burgess of said town, by virtue of his office, for municipal purposes and preserving the peace, shall have all the powers of the justice of the peace; he shall see that the laws and ordinances of the corporation are duly executed; he may require