

to be dealt with according to the law governing the offence committed; and in the execution of the duties of his office he shall have all and the same powers as any constable, and be entitled to the same fees; and his bond shall be liable as constables' bonds are under the laws of this State; and he may be allowed such salary as the mayor and council shall determine.

1860, ch. 434.

185. The mayor, when necessary, may appoint special bailiffs for the town, not to act for more than one day; and every person resisting the authority of the regular or special bailiffs shall be liable to conviction and punishment in the same manner and to the same extent as if resisting a constable.

Ibid.

186. The mayor and common council shall have power and authority to pave the sidewalks of the streets in the town, and to renew and repair and keep clean the sidewalks whenever, in their judgment, the same may be necessary, and may assess and levy the cost thereof as a tax upon the land fronting on the sidewalk which shall be paved, renewed, repaired or cleaned, so that each lot of land may be charged with the payment of the expense of paving the sidewalk or renewing, repairing or cleaning the same immediately in front thereof, and upon the same side of the street on which the said lot of land is situated; and the mayor and common council are authorized to collect the said expenses, and if the same be not paid within thirty days after the work is completed, they may distrain therefor in the same manner that county taxes are distrained for in Carroll county.

Ibid

187. They are authorized and empowered to open and establish new streets, lanes and alleys, and to straighten, widen and extend and close old streets, lanes and alleys; and all damages done, suffered or incurred by the opening, closing, straightening, widening, extending or improving of said streets, lanes or alleys, if not agreed upon by the mayor and common council and the persons interested therein, shall be determined and assessed by three disinterested persons, residents of said town, to be appointed