

and may be collected by judgment and execution in the same manner and with the same fees to the officers as provided for in cases of small debts; and the said fines, penalties and forfeitures so received shall be paid and delivered to the treasurer of the town, to be applied to and for the use and benefit thereof; and if the offence shall be a breach of the peace or disturbing the quiet and good order of the town by being drunk, or by riotous, immoral or obscene conduct, or violating any of the ordinances intended to secure the safety of the lives or property of any of the inhabitants of the town, the person so convicted may, in addition thereto, be committed to the Carroll county jail, or to some place of confinement provided therefor within the corporate limits of the town, by the said mayor or justice, until the fine and costs are paid, but not exceeding ten days for any one offence; and the mayor may, at any time when it shall seem to him just and proper, discharge the person so committed; and if the person so convicted shall be a minor, the same proceedings, in every respect, for the collection of fines, shall be had against the parent or guardian, or other person in whose custody or under whose control the said minor may be; and any person convicted under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, or the laws and ordinances of the town shall have the right to appeal to the next circuit court for Carroll county, upon giving bond forthwith to prosecute said appeal, or bail for his or her personal appearance at said court.

189. The common council, with the approval of the mayor, shall annually appoint a treasurer, who shall have power to collect the taxes levied by them, as county and State taxes are collected, or as the mayor and common council may by ordinance adopt for the benefit of the corporation; provided, that the said treasurer shall not be required to call personally on the taxpayers to collect said taxes, but shall give public notice of the time when they are due and payable, and the place in the town where they can be paid; and may distrain therefor at any time after sixty days from the date they shall become due and payable; and the said treasurer shall keep an accurate account of the receipts and disbursements of the funds of the corporation in a well-bound
