

book, and shall pay out the same only on the order of the mayor, and countersigned by the clerk, after the bills therefor have been passed by the said common council; and shall annually report, by a written or printed statement in detail, to the mayor and common council, showing the condition of the finances of the town, giving the several sums received and expended, and from whom received and for what account, and for what particular purposes expended, and to whom paid; and the mayor and common council shall require the said treasurer to enter into bond, with sufficient security for the true and faithful performance of his duties as such, which bond shall be liable as collectors' bonds are, under the laws of the State.

190. The mayor of the town, by virtue of his office, for municipal purposes and preserving the peace, shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace.

Ibid.

191. No justice of the peace shall be eligible to any office of the town, either by election or appointment; if he shall be appointed a justice of the peace or qualifies as such, he shall then cease to hold office as aforesaid.

1882, ch. 118.

192. Whenever any person owning land adjacent to the corporate limits of the town shall desire that said limits be so extended as to embrace his lands, he shall express the same to the mayor and common council of the said town by petition; and if any of said land is laid off in lots, streets and alleys, a majority of those persons owning said lots bounding on one or more streets may express by petition to the mayor and common council as aforesaid their desire to have said lots, streets and alleys embraced in the corporate limits of the town.

Ibid.

193. In the event of such petition being made to the mayor and common council by any person, as provided for in the above section, then and in that case the mayor and common council shall submit the matter as expressed in the petition to the
