one hundred dollars, for paying such charges and rents to the Union Bridge water company for the use of water as the said mayor and common council may deem it right to contract for, or may have contracted for.

1888, ch. 85.

197. They are authorized to issue additional bonds, not to exceed twenty-nine hundred dollars in amount, the proceeds thereof to be applied to the payment of such fire engine, hook-and-ladder truck and appliances and apparatus as may have been or may be purchased for the use of said town, as far as may be necessary therefor, and the proceeds of the balance of said bonds to be applied to such uses of said town as the said mayor and common council may deem right; the said bonds shall bear interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable annually, and shall be payable in twenty years from date, or earlier, at the pleasure of said mayor and common council; and a tax shall be levied on said property to pay the interest thereon and create a sinking fund for payment of said bonds at maturity; said bonds shall be issued in sums not exceeding five hundred dollars each, with coupons attached, and shall be under the corporate seal of said town, and signed by the mayor and countersigned by the clerk of said common council.[1]

UNIONTOWN.

1876, ch. 303.

198. The citizens and inhabitants of the town of Uniontown, in Carroll county, are a body corporate, by the name of "The Burgess and Commissioners of the Town of Uniontown," and by that name shall be capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any court of law or equity, and shall have perpetual succession, and may make all by-laws necessary for the purposes mentioned in this sub-title of this article.

Ibid.

199. The corporate bounds and limits of the town of Uniontown shall be described as follows: commencing at the alley or

[1] Adopted by the people April 2, 1888