

lane west of Mt. Joy meeting-house, (colored,) at the west end of Uniontown, running south fifty-five perches, then parallel with the main street of said town to the county road, at the east end of said town, leading from Uniontown turnpike to Wakefield, than due north one hundred and five perches, then with a straight line to the southwest corner of J. C. Brubaker's barn; thence with a straight line to what is known as the Red Gate, situated on the county road leading to Taneytown; then with a straight line to the place of beginning.

1876, ch. 303.

200. All persons who have resided in the town of Uniontown for six months, and who are qualified to vote for delegates to the general assembly, and all adult male non-residents who may hold real estate in said town shall, on the first Saturday in April in each year, elect by ballot, one person for burgess and four persons for commissioners, all of whom shall have resided in the town one year previous to the day of election, and who shall each be the owner in his own right, of real or personal estate therein, assessed at not less than two hundred and fifty dollars; and the said officers shall be known as the burgess and commissioners of Uniontown.

Ibid.

201. If the burgess, or any member of the board of commissioners, shall die, resign, remove from the town, or from any cause be disqualified during the year for which they have been elected, the commissioners may elect a burgess ad interim from their own number, for the balance of the term, or the burgess and the remaining members of the commissioners may elect one or more commissioners to fill the balance of the term.

Ibid.

202. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall be from time to time directed by the laws and ordinances of the said corporation, not inconsistent with the provisions of this sub-title of this article.

Ibid.

203. The burgess and commissioners shall meet at some convenient place in the town at least once in every three months, or