

P. L. L., (1860,) art 7, sec. 100.

219. If notice of such election shall not be given as herein-before required, or if the judges of election shall not be appointed or shall refuse to act, five or more voters of the said city may call an election for said officers by notices set up in the most public places in said city, not less than one week previous to such election, therein naming the time and place of holding such election, and naming three judges thereof, who, or any two of whom may hold such election.

Ibid. sec. 101.

220. If at any election there shall be a tie between any person voted for the said offices, or if any person elected to either of said offices shall refuse to act, die, resign, be disqualified or remove, a new election shall be held in two weeks after such fact shall have become known, after at least one week's notice given by the mayor or one or more of the common council or five or more of the voters, as directed in the preceding section; and such election shall be held by three judges, or any two of them, appointed by the mayor, or one or more of the common council, or five or more of the voters, as the case may be; and the person elected shall serve until a new election.

Ibid. sec. 102.

221. All officers of said city, except the mayor, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, shall make oath before a justice of the peace for Carroll county that they will act faithfully, without favor, partiality or prejudice in all things appertaining to their respective offices; the mayor shall qualify as directed by section 6 of article 70 of the code of public general laws, title "Official Oaths;" and a failure to take such oath and to qualify within two weeks after their election shall be deemed a refusal on the part of the party failing, to accept the office to which he has been elected.

Ibid. sec. 103.

222. The common council shall be judges of the qualifications of the mayor and of their own members.

Ibid sec 104.

223. The mayor and common council shall meet on the first Monday of each month, at such place and hour as shall be fixed
