

1880, ch. 286.

215. The county commissioners, by a vote of a majority thereof, shall have power to revoke the appointment and commission of any road supervisor and appoint any person to fill his place for the unexpired portion of his term, and in such case may order the payment by him to his successor, of any unexpended balance in his hands; and upon his failure to pay the same, his bond may be sued in the name of the State, for the use of such successor, for the recovery thereof.

Ibid.

216. The bonds of said general road supervisor, and of all of said other supervisors, shall be taken in the name of the State of Maryland, and shall be conditioned to well and faithfully perform their several duties as such supervisors, and to expend or account for, according to law, all sums of money which may be placed in their hands for road or bridge purposes; and suit may be brought thereon, in the name of the State, for the use of the said county commissioners, to recover damages for any loss which the said county may sustain by reason of the failure of said supervisor or supervisors to perform his or their duties.

Ibid.

217. The provisions of the six preceding sections relating to roads shall embrace the whole road system of Allegany county, including the road mentioned in chapter 291 of the acts of 1878, known as the legislative road, and the portion lying in Allegany county of the road mentioned in chapter 158 of the acts of 1878, known as the national turnpike, and all other public roads in said county.

SCHOOLS OF MINING.

1884, ch. 89.

218. Free evening schools shall be opened in Allegany county for the study of mining and mechanical knowledge, and all necessary studies preparatory thereto.

Ibid.

219. The school commissioners of said county are authorized to provide, from the now existing day schools, such teachers as
