

195. Their meetings; president, his term.
196. Powers of president and commissioners.
197. Arrest without warrant; under what circumstances; intoxicated offenders.
198. Lock-up.
199. Limits of the town; commissioners to establish and extend; description of boundaries.
200. Streets, establishing and improving.
201. Levy to pay for establishing and improving streets.
202. Upon failure to agree with owners of property needed for such improvements, jury to be summoned; where to meet.
203. Upon failure of jurors summoned to attend, others to be summoned, eight to be stricken from full panel, by whom.
204. Oath to be administered to jurors.
205. Estimation of benefits, inquisition, its form, return to court, confirmation by court.
206. If inquisition be set aside, another to be ordered.
207. What the inquisition must contain; upon payment, the commissioners become entitled to the property; valuation, payment after owner's refusal to receive.
208. Wharves, rafts, boats, commissioners' powers in regard to.
209. Wharves, lot owners' privileges in regard to
210. Taxes.
211. Appeal from assessment.
212. Officers to carry into effect ordinances.
213. Bailiff, bailiff's bonds.
214. Bailiff, powers as tax collector.
215. President of the commissioners, his powers and duties.
216. Erection of town hall.
217. Fines, how collected.
218. Expense of building lock-up, additional tax to pay.
219. May borrow money to pay expense of building lock-up; secured by mortgage on lock-up.
- Orphans' Court.
220. Crier, his pay, how provided for.
- Perryville.
221. Citizens of, a body corporate, corporate powers, name and seal
222. Limits of the town
223. Electors, commissioners, their election and necessary qualifications; no compensation,
224. Judges of election, hours during which polls shall be open.
225. Election to fill vacancies; notice of elections.
226. Tie vote for commissioners.
227. President, his selection, his duties.
228. Meetings of commissioners, when to be held.
229. Fines and forfeitures, how to be collected
230. Commissioners' oath, certificate of qualification.
231. In case of neglect to hold election, power not to cease; old commissioners to hold over.
232. Clerk to commissioners, his pay, his duties, record of ordinances; posting of copies of ordinances.
233. Powers of commissioners.
234. Establishment of and improvements on streets.
235. Expenses of establishment or improvements of streets, special tax to pay, how to be collected.
236. Upon failure to agree with owners of property required for such improvements, jury to be summoned; where to meet.