

237. Upon non-attendance of any persons so summoned, others to be summoned; eight to be stricken from full panel, by whom
238. Oath to be administered to jurors.
239. Estimation of benefits; inquisition, its form; return to court; confirmation by court.
240. If inquisition set aside, another to be ordered.
241. Inquisition, what it must contain; upon payment, commissioners become entitled to the property; payment of valuation after owners' refusal to receive it.
242. Assessment of property.
243. Appeal from assessment.
244. Bailiff, his powers, duties and pay
245. President of commissioners, his powers and duties.
246. County roads that run through Perryville.
- Port Deposit
247. Inhabitants of, are a body corporate; their corporate powers, name and seal.
248. Commissioners, electors; election for commissioners; their necessary qualifications; when and how they are to qualify; meeting to choose president, his duties.
249. Elections to be regulated by by-laws of the corporation.
250. Election to fill vacancies not to be held while five commissioners continue to serve, they to have powers of full board.
251. In case of neglect to hold an election, power not to cease, old board to hold over.
252. Limits of the town
253. Clerk to commissioners.
254. Record of ordinances to be kept for inspection.
255. Wharves, boats, obstructions in river, powers of commissioners in regard to.
256. Rights of lot-owners in the matter of wharves.
257. General powers of the commissioners.
258. Taxes; grading and paving streets.
259. Assessor; assessment.
260. Appeal from assessment.
261. Bailiff, his oath, bonds, duties; tax collector, his oath, bond; bailiff may be tax collector.
262. Bailiff and collector to attend meetings of commissioners, and perform what may be required of them.
263. Powers of president, commissioners and tax collector in the collection of taxes.
264. Grading and improvement of streets, lanes and alleys.
265. Opening, widening and straightening of streets, lanes and alleys; removing obstructions; condemnation for the purpose; levy to pay damages and expenses.
266. Paving sidewalks and streets; payment for, how to be made; culverts and drains; condemnation proceedings.
267. Power to borrow money; to issue bonds; subscriptions or loans to gas or water companies.
268. Survey upon application of lot-owners; expenses of same; notice to adjoining lot-owners.
269. Certificate of survey and bounds.
270. Taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties, to what use to be applied; how to be recovered; commitment; power to remit or release fines; supersedeas.
- Railroad Crossings.
271. Guards, where to be placed; their duties; notice to company be-