

- fore order to place guards, hours during which they must be on duty.
272. Violations of section 271; penalties.
273. Non-compliance with section 271; county commissioners to place guards; their pay.
274. Refusal or neglect on part of company to pay guards provided for in section 273.
275. Where and under what conditions, Baltimore and Ohio railroad company to be relieved from compliance with sections 271-274.
276. Bridges over railroads; requirements.
- Register of Wills.
277. New index of deceased persons; index of wards.
278. Cost of indexing; pay of register of wills for making; how to be paid.
- Rising Sun.
279. Citizens of, a body corporate; their corporate name and powers; seal.
280. Electors; election of commissioners; their necessary qualifications.
281. Judges of election; hours during which polls are to be open; persons having majority of votes to be commissioners; their term of office.
282. Tie vote, proceedings if three commissioners shall have been elected.
283. If there shall not be three commissioners elected or serving; proceedings.
284. Choice of president, when to be made; his duties at meetings.
285. Commissioners, how often to meet; vacancy in office of, how filled.
286. Clerk; his duties and pay; record of ordinances to be open for inspection; copies of ordinances to be posted.
287. Limits of the village; property within subject to taxation.
288. Fines and forfeitures, how recoverable.
289. Powers of commissioners
290. Arrest without warrant, intoxicated offenders
291. Streets, lanes and alleys, establishing limits and width of, removing obstructions from and opening.
292. Damages and expenses, payment of
293. Jury of condemnation.
294. Oath; eight to be stricken from full panel, by whom.
295. Estimation of benefits; inquisition, its form; return to court; confirmation by court; to be recorded.
296. If inquisition set aside, another to be ordered, what it must contain; upon payment, commissioners become entitled to the property, payment to owner of valuation after his refusal to receive it.
297. Taxes.
298. Appeal from assessment.
299. Officers to carry into effect ordinances, bailiff to be collector of taxes and have authority of constable
300. Bailiff to give two bonds.
301. Bailiff's powers as collector of taxes.
302. Oath to be administered to officers of the town and president of commissioners
303. President of commissioners, his powers and duties.