

such period thereafter, or prior thereto, as may be necessary for the protection thereof, and upon and around the grounds belonging to or controlled or used by the said society, which detailed force shall have and exercise, in addition to the special power and authority conferred on them by this sub-title of this article, the same powers and authority as the several constables in the State now have as conservators of the peace.

1888, ch. 138.

2. Any person who shall knowingly and wilfully violate any of the provisions of the preceding section, or any of the by-laws, rules and regulations, or other enactments of the said society, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, each and every person so offending shall be fined by said justice of the peace a sum not less than one dollar and costs, nor more than five dollars and costs, for the first offence, and not less than five dollars and costs, nor more than twenty dollars and costs, for each and every offence committed thereafter; and upon the failure of any person to pay the said fines and costs, the justice of the peace before whom the same shall be tried shall commit him to the county jail in said county until said fines and costs are paid.

Ibid.

3. All fines imposed and collected under and in accordance with section 2, shall be paid to the board of school commissioners of Cecil county, for the use and benefit of the public schools therein.

Ibid.

4. All persons summoned and detailed in accordance with section 1 shall be known, recognized and respected as "special constables," and shall have full power and authority and jurisdiction in the discharge of their several duties within the fair grounds and other enclosures belonging to and controlled and used by the said society, and also within the distance of one-half mile beyond and surrounding said grounds and enclosures; and the said special constables shall arrest all disorderly persons within their jurisdiction whom they shall find disturbing the
