

peace in any manner, interrupting the conduct and progress of any fair or exhibition of said society, or violating any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, or the by-laws, rules and regulations of the said society, and shall take the said violators before some justice of the peace of said county to be tried and fined in accordance with section 2; and the said special constables and justices of the peace shall receive for issuing and serving all processes under this section the same fees that the said justices of the peace and the constables of said county are now entitled to receive for like service.

1888, ch. 138.

5. The said president, vice-president or managers, or any of them, are authorized and empowered to discharge and dismiss at any time any one or more of the special constables aforesaid, on account of a refusal or failure, for any cause, to perform any duty imposed by or in accordance with this sub-title of this article; and any special constable so discharged and dismissed shall forfeit and lose part or all of his per diem or wages due to him from the said society for any service as special constable aforesaid, at the discretion of the aforesaid managers.

Ibid.

6. No person to whom the said society shall grant the privilege of bartering or selling any goods, chattels, wares or merchandise within the grounds of said society during any exhibition or fair, or to whom the said society shall grant the privilege of exhibiting any lawful games, show or performance within the grounds aforesaid during any exhibition or fair, shall be required to take out any license from or pay any fee or reward to the State of Maryland or said county for or on account of such privilege; provided, the said society shall annually pay to the board of school commissioners of said county the sum of twenty-five dollars for the use of the public schools in said county.

ALMSHOUSE.

1884, ch. 13. 1888, ch. 298.

7. The trustees of the poor and insane of Cecil county shall consist of nine persons, inhabitants of the county, and not more