

dollars and not more than ten dollars for each offence, with the costs of prosecution; and all prosecutions shall be in the name of the State, before a justice of the peace of the election district in which such violation may occur; and of all such fines, when collected, one-half shall be paid to the informer and the other half to the treasurer of said county, to be applied to the support of the public schools of said county.

46. The possession by any person, within said county, of any of the above-mentioned birds, shot, killed or otherwise destroyed, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation by such person, of section 43; and it shall be the duty of the constables of said county to arrest all persons they may detect in, or who may be charged with the violation of either of said sections, and take them before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to law.

BRIDGE OVER SASSAFRAS RIVER.

1870, ch. 415.

47. All persons passing over the Sassafras river bridge on horseback, in carriages, carts, wagons, sleighs, or other vehicles, shall be required to put their horses in a walk, otherwise they shall be fined five dollars for each and every offence; it shall be the duty of the bridge tender to see to the enforcement of this section; any justice of the peace for either Cecil county or Kent county in which any party violating the above provisions may be found, shall have jurisdiction in the matter; and the penalty shall be recovered in the name of the county commissioners of said counties, in an action for debt.

Ibid.

48. All captains, owners, masters and sailors of vessels, going through the draw of said bridge, shall be required to lower and take in as much sail as shall be necessary to prevent damage by carelessness before going through the same, and at a sufficient distance therefrom, to remove liability of injury or damage to said drawbridge by the headway of such vessels, and shall use in the management of said vessels reasonable care to prevent injury.
