

1888, ch. 305.

54. The county commissioners of each of the counties named in this sub-title of this article are respectively authorized and empowered, in their discretion, in case either contribute towards the building of the bridge aforesaid, or subscribe to the stock of a company organized to build the same as hereinbefore provided, to divide the amount so contributed or subscribed into as many equal parts as they may deem proper, not exceeding four, and to issue certificates of indebtedness therefor; that is to say, for one of said parts payable in one year, for another of said parts payable in two years, for another of said parts payable in three years, for another of said parts payable in four years; or said certificates shall be payable at as many annual intervals as said amount is divided into parts, said certificates to bear interest, not exceeding five per cent. interest per annum, until their maturity, but not afterwards; and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of the county where such certificates have been issued, and they are directed, to levy upon the assessable property of said county for the payment of the same at their maturity in the annual levy next preceding such maturity.

CECILTON.

1882, ch. 408.

55. The inhabitants of the town of Cecilton are a corporation by the name of "The President and Commissioners of the town of Cecilton," and by that name shall have perpetual succession; may sue and be sued; may purchase, hold and dispose of real, personal and mixed property for the use and benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure.

Ibid.

56. Said commissioners shall be five in number, and shall be elected on the first Monday in May, annually; all the male inhabitants of said town, citizens of the United States, above twenty-one years of age, who shall have bona fide resided in the town one year next preceding the election at which they shall offer to vote, shall be entitled to vote for said commissioners.