

and in not more than two, all public local laws passed at each session of the general assembly affecting Cecil county, and made to take effect from the date of their passage, once a week for three successive weeks.

1886, ch. 240.

118. The county commissioners shall levy annually the amount required to pay the interest on the bonds issued under the act of 1886, chapter 240, and also the amount necessary to redeem said bonds as they shall mature; and the said bonds shall be exempt from taxation for county and municipal purposes; and said commissioners are forbidden to apply any portion of the taxes so levied to any other purpose; nor shall they, in any year hereafter, except when extraordinary circumstances may require it to be done, exceed in their expenditures for all county purposes the amount levied for said year; and when an emergency may compel the creation of a deficiency, the same shall be plainly shown in the annual statement of county expenses, and be levied for in the first levy made after its creation.

COUNTY TREASURER.

119. At their regular meeting in the month of April in each year, they shall appoint some person, a resident of said county, other than the clerk to said commissioners, to be treasurer, whose duty it shall be to collect and disburse, upon their order, all taxes levied in Cecil county; and who shall assess all new or missed property in said county, and for this purpose he is clothed with all the powers possessed by collectors of taxes under the provisions of the code of public general laws; and the said treasurer may appoint one or more deputies, who shall be authorized to act in his place, for whose acts he shall be responsible, and to whom he may pay such compensation as he shall deem proper, to be deducted from his salary; and he shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars, twenty-five cents each for assessments of real and personal property, and five cents per head for all dogs and bitches returned by him to the commissioners, and ordered by them to be entered on the books of their office; and the said treasurer shall execute to the State of Maryland two bonds, one
