

P L. L., (1860,) art. 8, sec 63.

127. The judges and clerks of election in Cecil county shall each be allowed for every election at which they may attend and act, and for making the returns thereof, the sum of three dollars per day.

Ibid. sec. 64.

128. The judges of elections in the several election districts in said county may, in their discretion, appoint two of the constables of their respective districts to attend on the days of election at the place of receiving votes, for the purpose of preserving the peace.

ELKTON.

1880, ch. 435.

129. The inhabitants of the town of Elkton are a corporation by the name of "The President and Commissioners of the Town of Elkton," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, may purchase, hold and dispose of real, personal and mixed property, for the use and benefit of said town; and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure.

Ibid.

130. Said commissioners shall be five in number, and shall be elected on the first Monday in May, annually; and all male citizens of the United States above twenty-one years of age, who shall own property assessed in the limits of the town, and shall have paid their assessment, and all male inhabitants of the town, citizens of the United States, above twenty-one years of age, who shall have bona fide resided in the town two years next preceding the election at which they shall offer to vote, shall be entitled to vote for said commissioners.

Ibid.

131. The commissioners shall annually designate the time and place of holding said election, and give at least two weeks' notice thereof by notices set up at five of the most prominent places in the town; and at some meeting prior to the first Monday of May in each year shall appoint some person to act as judge of said election, who, before acting as such, shall qualify in the same
