

days from the date of the rendition thereof; but execution thereon shall not be stayed unless the party appealing shall give the usual appeal bond to the State of Maryland, in double the fine imposed and costs, with two sureties, to be approved by said justice.

1878, ch. 276. 1888, ch. 390.

166. The justices of the peace of Cecil, Harford and Baltimore counties, and the circuit courts for each of said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases that may arise under the provisions of the two preceding sections, when the violation of such provisions take place on the bay aforesaid; and when such violation takes place on any waters or streams forming the boundary between any of said counties, the justices of the peace of either of said counties bounding on said waters or stream, and the circuit court for either of said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction; and any person arrested for the violation of any of the provisions of these sections may be taken to either of said counties upon whose justices of the peace or circuit court jurisdiction is conferred by this section, for commitment and trial; and from the judgment of the justice of the peace mentioned in this section, appeals may be taken on the terms mentioned in the next preceding section.

Ibid.

167. The board of special police biennially appointed by the governor of the State, and charged with enforcement of the laws relating to wild water-fowl, are hereby constituted officers of this State, and charged with the enforcement of the provisions of said sections so far as the same extend to the waters of said bay and its tributaries in Cecil and Harford counties, northward of the line mentioned in section 164; and the sheriff, constables and commissioned militia officers of Cecil, Harford and Baltimore counties are hereby constituted officers of this State and charged with the enforcement of the provisions of said sections in each of said counties, and upon any waters to which the same apply.

Ibid.

168. The possession, between the fifteenth day of October and the thirty-first day of December of each year, of any net or