

1886, ch 291

188. In any indictment for violation of the provisions of this sub-title of this article it shall not be necessary, except in the case of cider, to specify the particular kind of liquor which any person, house, company, association or body corporate, bartered, sold or gave away, or solicited or received orders for the purchase of, or kept, deposited or had, with intent to barter, sell or give away, or that the same had been bartered, sold or given away in violation of said provisions; but it shall be sufficient if the indictment sets forth that the traverser bartered, sold or gave away, or solicited or received orders for the purchase of, or kept, deposited or had, with intent to barter, sell or give away, spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drinks, or with intent that the same be bartered, sold or given away, in violation of said provisions.

NORTH-EAST.

1870, ch. 100.

189. The citizens of the village of North-East, in Cecil county, are a body politic, by the name of "The President and Commissioners of the village of North-East," and by their corporate name may sue and be sued, purchase, hold and receive real, personal and mixed property, and grant and dispose of the same for the benefit of said village, and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure.

Ibid.

190. All male citizens of said village above the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been bona fide residents thereof during the space of six months, and shall have resided in the State twelve months next preceding the election, shall elect by ballot, on the third Monday in March, annually, at the town hall in said village, five judicious and discreet persons, who shall have resided within the limits of the village for at least twelve months next preceding the election, commissioners for said village.

Ibid.

191. All such elections shall be conducted as shall be from time to time directed by the by-laws of the corporation not inconsistent with the laws of the State.
