

town; to suppress all disorderly meetings; to prevent the firing of cannon, guns, squibs or any kind of fire-arms or fireworks in said town; to suppress and abate all nuisances; to prevent goats, swine and geese from going at large; to prevent any immoderate driving through the streets with carriage, stage, cart, wagon or other vehicle, or on horseback, so as to endanger the lives, limbs or property of the citizens of said town, or disturb the quiet enjoyment of the streets and thoroughfares; and to prevent the parading and indecent exhibition of any stallion through the streets; and may impose fines, not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence, on any person violating said ordinances.

1870, ch. 100.

197. They may provide by ordinance for the immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person violating any town ordinance by driving through the streets, when, in the judgment of the president, or any two of said commissioners, the delay necessary to the issuing of a warrant will be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the village, or the lives, limbs or property of its citizens; and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated, so as to render it unsafe to permit him to drive through the street, they shall provide for the removal of the horse and vehicle beyond the limits of the village, or for the deposit thereof in some place of security until the offender shall be sober; and may confine said offender in some secure place until he shall be sober.

Ibid.

198. The commissioners shall have the power to build a lock-up or place of confinement for the reception of offenders, and the cost thereof shall be assessed upon the citizens of the village, and collected as other town taxes, hereinafter provided for.

Ibid.

199. They shall have power to determine the limits of the town, and extend the same if they deem it expedient, and they shall file with the clerk of the circuit court for Cecil county a description of the boundaries established by them, which shall be deemed a record of the boundaries of the town.
