

line to a large flat stone in or on the edge of a small run on the land of the Misses Chamberlain, one hundred and fifty-seven feet in an easterly direction from a very large poplar tree that stands on the line between the lands of the said Misses Chamberlain and Doctor Virdin; thence in a westerly direction, with and bounding on said run and on the south side thereof until it empties into the Susquehanna river, twenty feet north of the ice houses and wharf of Cochran & Co.; thence with and bounding on the Susquehanna river to the place of beginning.

1882, ch. 212.

223. The male citizens of the United States of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the town of Perryville one year next preceding the election, and all male citizens of the United States of the age of twenty-one years and upwards who own real estate to the value of fifty dollars within the corporate limits of said town, shall elect by ballot on the first Monday of May in each year, at such place as the "Commissioners of Perryville" shall designate, three commissioners, who shall be owners of real estate in said town, and who shall have resided within the limits of the same one year next preceding the election; and no commissioner shall receive any compensation for his services as such.

Ibid.

224. Said commissioners shall annually, on the first Monday of May, appoint some person to act as judge of said election, who shall open the polls at three o'clock p. m. and close the same at six p. m.; and the persons who shall have the majority of votes shall be declared elected commissioners for the ensuing year.

Ibid.

225. In case of the death, refusal to act, resignation or disqualification of any of the commissioners, the remaining commissioners shall direct an election to be held to fill such vacancy; and the commissioners or remaining commissioners shall give at least ten days' notice of all elections by handbills set up at three of the most public places in said town.