

.1874, ch. 216.

251. If the inhabitants of said town shall at any time neglect to make an election at the time herein mentioned, the power of electing commissioners shall not cease, but the right and power of said inhabitants in that respect shall continue, and the president and commissioners for the time being shall continue in office until such election shall be held.

Ibid.

252. The limits of the town shall commence on the Susquehanna river, at the eastern terminus of the old Port Deposit bridge, and run thence north forty-five degrees, east one-quarter of a mile; thence in a southeasterly direction in a straight line to a point one-fourth of a mile from the centre of the main street of said town on the road leading from Port Deposit to Battle Swamp, known as the Bell's Ferry road; thence in a straight line to a point on Herring run, one-fourth of a mile from the Susquehanna river; thence down the said run to the Susquehanna river, and then by and with the said river to the place of beginning.

Ibid.

253. The president and commissioners may appoint a clerk, and prescribe his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper.

Ibid.

254. All ordinances passed by the president and commissioners shall be entered by the clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and said ordinances, or printed copies thereof, shall be kept for the inspection of any person interested.

Ibid.

255. The president and commissioners shall have power to determine upon and regulate all matters relating to the building of wharves in the town, and to regulate the mooring of rafts, arks and boats on the waters of the Susquehanna river in front of said town.
