

necessary to the issuing of a warrant will be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the town, or the lives, limbs and property of the citizens; and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated, so as to render it unsafe to permit him to drive through the streets, they shall provide for the removal of the horse and vehicle without the limits of the town, or for the deposit thereof in some place of safety until the offender shall be sober.

1874, ch. 216.

258. They shall have power to levy and collect taxes in the town, not exceeding in any one year thirty cents in the one hundred dollars, on the assessable property of said town; and shall also, for the purpose of grading and paving the streets of said town, have power to levy such other taxes upon the property fronting on the street, or portion thereof to be paved, as will pay the cost of grading and paving the same.

Watts v. Port Deposit, 46 Md. 500.

Ibid.

259. They shall once in every three years, or oftener if they think proper, appoint an assessor, who shall, under oath, value and assess the property in said town, in the same manner and with like authority as county assessors proceed to assess in the county; but in assessing any of the land within the limits of said town which may be occupied and used as farms, or may be a part of farms, such lands shall be valued and assessed as lots of five acres of ground, with the buildings and improvements thereon, and shall not be valued and assessed by the number of acres therein contained.

Ibid.

260. If any owner of property assessed in said town shall feel aggrieved by the assessment made by said assessor, he may appeal to the president and commissioners, who may make such deductions therein as to them may seem just and reasonable.

Ibid.

261. The president and commissioners may annually appoint an active and discreet person to be bailiff and constable within the limits of said town, who, before he shall proceed to the exe-
