

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 8, sec. 178.

310. No person shall run any race with any horse, mare or gelding, for wager on the public roads or streets in Cecil county.

Ibid sec. 179.

311. Any person who shall offend against the provisions of the preceding section, shall be fined not less than twenty dollars for each offence.

1864, ch. 98.

312. No person shall fire any gun, pistol or fire-lock of any kind, on or within twenty yards of any public road, street, bridge, causeway or highway in Cecil county, under a penalty of not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered in the same manner as prescribed in section 309.

1864, ch. 45.

313. The county commissioners are authorized and directed to divide, once in every two years, the county into three divisions, each embracing three election districts, and to assign one of their number to each of said divisions, who shall have general charge of all roads and bridges, and shall give general supervision to all road and bridge work done in his division.

Ibid.

314. The commissioners shall divide the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh election districts of said county, each into three road districts, and the eighth and ninth election districts each into two road districts; and whenever they shall deem it necessary to do so, may change the boundaries of said road districts; and the commissioners shall appoint for each road district a road commissioner, who shall hold his office for the number of years not exceeding three, that the county commissioners may specify at the time of making said appointment; and there shall be appointed in the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh election districts one road commissioner for one year, one for two and one for three years, and in the eighth and ninth election districts, one for one year and one for two years; and one of the commissioners in each election district
