

1886, ch. 33.

251. All fines and forfeitures prescribed by the ordinances of the commissioners shall be imposed by the said president, or any justice of the peace of Allegany county, upon a warrant to be issued, directed to the said bailiff or any policeman; and the person convicted, in default of payment, may be committed to the jail of Allegany county, or any other place provided by the commissioners.

WILD ANIMALS.

1863, ch. 239

252. Any citizen of this State who shall kill or destroy any wolf, panther, wild cat or fox, within the limits of Allegany county, shall be entitled to the following allowance, to wit: For each wolf's scalp, the sum of twenty dollars; for each wild cat's scalp, the sum of one dollar and fifty cents; for each fox's scalp, the sum of one dollar; and for each panther's scalp, the sum of five dollars.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 1, sec. 189.

253. To obtain such allowance it shall be necessary for the person killing any such animal to produce the head of the same before some justice of the peace for said county, and at the same time make oath that the said animal was taken and killed within the limits of Allegany county within six days before the production of the head before the justice; and the said justice shall thereupon give the person so producing such head a certificate that it was produced before him, wherein he shall set forth the above mentioned oath; and it shall also be the duty of the justice to destroy any such head to prevent any second allowance for the same.

Ibid. sec. 190.

254. Upon the production of such certificate the county commissioners shall levy upon the assessable property of the county the aforesaid allowance, for the use of the person producing the same, and shall pay the same accordingly.
