

drain well covered and in good repair for the passage of vehicles over the same; and all persons so offending shall upon conviction be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, said fine to be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the road and bridge account; and when any unlawful obstruction or injury to a public road shall be reported to the road commissioner, in whose road district the same is located, he shall forthwith remove said obstruction, or repair said injury, at the cost of the person causing the same; and if such person shall refuse to pay the cost to the road commissioner, the county commissioners shall pay the same and institute suit at once against him to recover said costs.

1884, ch. 45.

321. Whenever any doubt may exist as to the proper location or width of any road, the county commissioners may cause the same to be surveyed, and in their discretion make such alterations as the convenience of the public may require, and may compensate any owner of land along said road who may be entitled to compensation in consequence of said alterations.

SCHOOLS.

322. The school commissioners shall not expend for school purposes or for any other purpose, a greater sum of money in any one year than shall be annually levied for school purposes by the county commissioners, in addition to the amount annually received by said school commissioners from the treasurer of the State, and they shall not borrow any sum of money in any one year which, added to the actual receipts for such year would exceed their yearly income as provided for by law; and it shall be lawful for the holders of any indebtedness or any evidence of indebtedness contracted in violation of this section, to sue upon or enforce the same in any court of law or equity in this State, against said school commissioners, either individually or collectively, Ibid.

323. In case of the destruction of any school house by fire or otherwise, the school commissioners, with the concurrence of the county commissioners, may borrow so much money as may replace
