

such school house, and no more; and such money shall be applied to the rebuilding of such house and to no other purpose whatever; and the county commissioners shall provide for such indebtedness by an additional levy in the following year.

SHEEP AND DOGS.

1882, ch. 301.

324. All owners of dogs and sluts, upwards of two months old, in Cecil county, shall pay to the county an annual tax of one dollar for each dog and two dollars for each slut; and any dog or slut kept or staying about the premises of any person, with his knowledge, whether such person be the owner or only the occupant of said premises, shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, the property of said person; and the tax imposed by this section shall be due and payable on the first day of September of each year.

Ibid.

325. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to collect and pay into the county treasury the tax due from owners of dogs and sluts in the county, and for such additional service he shall receive an additional compensation not exceeding ten per centum of the whole amount of such tax collected by him, to be paid out of such tax; and for the faithful performance of such additional service, his official bond shall be liable.

Ibid.

326. For the collection of the annual tax from owners of dogs and sluts, he is invested with all the authority conferred upon him as collector of State and county taxes.

Ibid.

327. The real estate and personal property of owners of dogs and sluts in the county shall be liable for the said tax, and may be sold by the treasurer to pay the same and all costs of sale, in the same manner as such property may be sold for State and county taxes.

Ibid.

328. The treasurer, upon the order of the county commissioners, shall cause to be killed any dog or slut for which said tax