

1867, ch. 218.

345. All such elections shall be held and conducted as shall, from time to time be directed by the by-laws of the corporation, not inconsistent with the provisions of this sub-title of this article.

Ibid.

346. If any of the commissioners during the year for which he may be elected, shall die, resign, remove from the town or be otherwise disqualified, an election to fill such vacancy shall be held, at which all persons qualified to vote, as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be entitled to vote.

Ibid.

347. If the inhabitants of the town shall at any time neglect to make an election at the time herein mentioned, the power of electing commissioners shall not cease, but the right and power of said inhabitants in that respect shall continue, and the president and commissioners, for the time being, shall continue in office until such election shall be held.

Ibid.

348. The limits of the town shall commence at a stone set in the ground on the south side of the road leading from Warwick to Elkton, marked third of Ask more, and running thence to the point in the middle of the road running from Warwick to Middleton, where said road crosses the State line; thence to a point in the middle of the main road running from Warwick to the Levels, where said road crosses the State line, thence to the intersection of the Head of Sassafras and Cecilton road, thence to the northwest corner of J. B. Morton's lot joining the land of J. J. Lockwood, and thence to the place of beginning.

Ibid.

349. The commissioners may appoint a clerk and prescribe his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper.

Ibid.

350. All ordinances passed by the commissioners shall be entered by the clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose,
