

and upon indictment and conviction in the circuit court for Cecil county, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars, and not more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than sixty days, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

1884, ch. 385.

366. When fines are imposed for violations of said sections, or any of them, and the offenders refuse to pay the same, then the special policeman or sheriff or constable may proceed at public sale, after giving three weeks' notice of the time and place of such sale by advertisement in one newspaper in the county, to dispose of the sink box or other craft, together with the decoys, tackle and furniture belonging thereto, to the highest bidder for cash; and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting all legal expenses, shall be appropriated to the payment of the fines, and the residue, if any, shall be paid to the owner.

367. Any party against whom any justice of the peace may render a judgment under said sections, may, at any time within ten days thereafter, appeal from such judgment to the circuit court for Cecil county; but no execution or sale shall be stayed unless the party appealing shall give bond with two sufficient securities, to be approved by the justice, to the State of Maryland, in double the amount of the fine imposed, conditioned to prosecute such appeal with effect to the circuit court at its next session thereafter, and to pay the fine imposed and all costs attending such proceedings, in case judgment shall be affirmed.

Ibid.

368. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of said sections in regard to the shooting of wild fowl, he shall, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for Cecil county, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, except as follows: any one who shall shoot wild fowl from a sink-box, duly licensed as aforesaid, upon any other day than those mentioned in section 361, shall, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for Cecil county, pay a
