

fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars for each offence; any one who shall shoot wild fowl from a sink-box, duly licensed as aforesaid, without having first obtained the consent of the owner or tenant of the land opposite to whose shore the sink-box is placed, shall, upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace for Cecil county, pay a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty dollars for each offence.

1884, ch. 385.

369. All such fines, whether the same may be recovered by action of debt in the name of the State, which process is hereby authorized or secured by public sale as provided in section 366, shall be divided as follows, viz: one-half to the informer and the other half to the county commissioners for the use and benefit of the county; and all monies accruing from the sale of such licenses, not exceeding two hundred dollars per annum, shall be paid over at the end of the gunning seasons to the special policeman appointed under section 365.

1878, ch. 292.

370. All persons holding a license under sections 362, 363 and 364, are vested with power and authority to arrest, without warrant, all persons who may be detected by them in violating any of the provisions of sections 361 to 369, inclusive, or of the provisions of the code of public general laws, regulating the shooting of wild fowl, remaining in force over said waters, and to carry such person before a justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to law.

1882, ch. 204.

371. It shall be lawful for the bona fide citizens of Cecil and Kent counties to shoot wild fowl from sink-boxes in the waters of the Sassafras river, in said counties, from the first day of November in each year, until the thirty-first day of March next succeeding, on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of each week, upon obtaining a license so to do, as provided in the succeeding section; provided, that no shooting from sink-boxes shall be allowed within one hundred yards of any shore or point on the Cecil side of said river, unless with the consent of the owner or tenant of said shore or point.
