

officer or other person authorized to make arrests or seizures shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction in the circuit court for Cecil or Kent county shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

1880, ch. 42.

375. When fines are so imposed for violations of any of said sections 371-373, and the offender refuses to pay the same, the sheriff or constable may proceed, at public sale, after giving three weeks' notice of the time and place of such sale by advertisement in one newspaper in said county, to dispose of the sink box or other craft, together with the decoys, tackle and furniture belonging thereto, to the highest bidder for cash; and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting all legal expenses, shall be appropriated to the payment of said fines, and the residue, if any, shall be paid to the owner.

Ibid.

376. Any party against whom any justice of the peace may render a judgment under any of said sections, may, at any time within ten days thereafter, appeal from such judgment to the circuit court for Cecil or Kent county; but no execution or sale shall be stayed unless the party appealing shall give bond, with two sufficient securities, to be approved by the justice, to the State of Maryland, in double the amount of the fine imposed, with the condition to prosecute such appeal with effect to the circuit court at its next session thereafter, and to pay the fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings, in case judgment shall be affirmed.

Ibid.

377. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of said sections 371-373, in regard to the shooting of wild fowl, he shall, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for Cecil or Kent counties, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, except as follows: any one who shall shoot wild fowl from a sink box, duly licensed as aforesaid, upon any other day than those mentioned in section 371, shall, upon con-
