

wild fowl, as aforesaid ; and each of said days shall comprehend the time intervening between one hour before sunrise, and half an hour after sunset of each day, and no more, and is not to include any part or period of a night ; and any person, on conviction of a violation of this section, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars, and not more than one hundred dollars.

1872, ch. 54.

388. No owner, master, hirer, borrower, employee of any owner, or other person, shall use or employ any sink box, or sneak boat of any description whatever, for the purpose of shooting at wild water-fowl therefrom, northward of the line named and described in section 380, without first obtaining a license to so use and employ the same as is hereinafter provided.

1884, ch. 506.

389. The clerk of the circuit court for Cecil county and the clerk of the circuit court for Harford county, upon the application of any resident of the State of Maryland, being the owner of any sink box or sneak boat, such as is allowed by this sub-title of this article to be used and employed in shooting at wild water-fowl therefrom, shall grant a license under the seal of his court, to such applicant to gun after and shoot at wild water-fowl from such sink box or sneak boat northward of the line named and described in section 380, from the first day of November in each and every year, to the thirty-first day of March next succeeding thereafter, in each and every year ; provided, that such license shall not authorize any person using such sink box or sneak boat to gun after or shoot at wild water-fowl therefrom within a less distance than one-quarter of a mile of any shore in Cecil or Harford county, or southward of the line particularly described in section 380.

1882, ch. 180.

390. The sneak boat, such as is specified in section 389, shall be a flat-bottom batteau or other boat, with bush or canvas blinds, and shall be engaged bona fide in shooting or gunning over decoys, and no other boat shall be licensed as a sneak boat ; no sailing boat or skiff, or other boat engaged in hunting or shooting crippled ducks, or in purloining ducks that have been killed and
