403. The commander of the State police force shall have and is hereby invested with concurrent jurisdiction and authority with the board of special police appointed by section 398, to arrest without warrant for any violation of any of the provisions of sections 380 to 402, inclusive.

404. No person shall at any time take, catch or trap, or attempt to take, catch or trap, wild water-fowl, by nets of any kind, within the Chesapeake bay or any of its tributaries within Cecil, Harford or Baltimore counties, or within any of the waters of said bay lying northward of a line drawn westerly from the most southerly point of Cecil county bordering on said bay, to the most southerly point of Baltimore county bordering on said bay.

405. Any person violating any of the provisions of section 404, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of the county where such violation took place, or on indictment before the circuit court for said county, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, in the discretion of said justice or court, and in default of payment of such fine shall be forthwith committed to the county jail for the period of sixty days; and from the judgment of said justice there shall be the right of appeal to the circuit court for the county where said justice resides; provided, said appeal shall be taken within ten days from the date of the rendition thereof; but execution thereon shall not be stayed unless the party appealing shall give the usual appeal bond to the State of Maryland in double the fine imposed and costs, with two sureties, to be approved by said justice.

406. The justices of the peace of Cecil, Harford and Baltimore counties, and the circuit courts for each of said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases that may arise under the provisions of the preceding section when the violation of such provisions takes place on said bay; and when such violation takes place on any waters or streams forming the boundary
