

with the necessary requirements of this sub-title of this article to enable him to take or kill the same, shall be considered prima facie evidence of the violation of the provisions of this sub-title of this article.

1888, ch. 353.

43. One-half of all fines collected by any justice of the peace in said county, for a violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, shall be paid by said justice of the peace to the board of school commissioners for the benefit of the public schools of said county, and the other half to the informer.

Ibid.

44. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of said county, and the constables of the several districts thereof, to arrest any person violating any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, and take him before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with as hereinbefore directed.

CHARLOTTE HALL.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 9, sec. 29.

45. The judge of the circuit court for Charles county shall suppress any license for the retail of ardent spirits at or in the village of Charlotte Hall, or within two miles thereof, upon the recommendation of a majority of the trustees of Charlotte Hall academy stating that they believe the retailing of liquor at such place to be injurious to the interests of said academy.

Ibid. sec. 30.

46. The clerk of the circuit court shall not issue license to retail ardent spirits at any place within the limits prescribed in the preceding section, at which a license to retail the same has been previously suppressed, except upon the consent, in writing, of a majority of the trustees of Charlotte Hall academy, designating the place at which and the person to whom such license may be granted.

CIRCUIT COURT.

1868, ch. 439.

47. There shall be two regular terms of the circuit courts for the several counties of Charles, Calvert, St. Marys and Prince