

1888, ch. 352.

113. The bailiff shall have the same fees for making distress for taxes as are allowed county collectors, and for making arrests or serving process for violations of any ordinances of the corporation, the same as are allowed constables for similar services; and when the bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duties of his office he may be fined, not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence.

Ibid.

114. Any fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this subtitle of this article, or by any ordinance of the commissioners, may be collected by proceedings in the name of the commissioners; and the said commissioners shall have power to commit the offender to the county jail on failure to pay such fines and forfeitures, until the same be paid with costs.

Ibid.

115. The commissioners shall not expend, or contract to expend, in any one year, more money than the amount receivable from taxes, and obtained from all sources for that year.

Ibid.

116. The county commissioners, justices of the peace, sheriff, constable and all State and county officers shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town as if this subtitle of this article had not been enacted.

MECHANICS' LIENS.

1886, ch. 52. 1888, ch. 64.

117. The provisions of the code of public general laws relating to mechanics' liens shall not apply to Charles county.

MILLS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 9, sec. 51.

118. The master or owner of any horse-mill or wind-mill in Charles county may demand and receive for grinding any quantity of corn or rye, the sixth part thereof; and if any such master or owner, or the miller, or the person employed by him in said mill, shall demand or receive more, he shall forfeit the sum of
