ALMSHOUSE.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 2, sec. 1.

1. The county commissioners of Anne Arundel county, at their first meeting in the month of March in each year shall appoint five discreet and proper persons to be trustees of the poor for said county.

Ibid. sec. 2.

2. The clerk of the county commissioners shall, within five days after such appointment, deliver to the sheriff of the county a certificate of the appointment of each of the said trustees, endorsing one of them for each; and the sheriff shall, within six days thereafter, deliver one of the certificates to each of them, agreeably to the endorsement thereon.

Ibid. sec. 3.

3. The said trustees, under the penalty of twenty-five dollars, shall accept said office, and shall meet at the almshouse in said county on the second Monday of April next ensuing, (unless prevented by sickness or other unavoidable accident, and in such case as soon thereafter as the disability shall be removed,) and qualify by taking the following oath: "I, A. B., do swear that I will duly and faithfully discharge the duties and trusts committed to me as trustee for the poor for Anne Arundel county, according to the best of my skill and knowledge, so help me God;" which oath shall be administered by any one of said trustees to the others, any one of whom being sworn may administer the same to him.

Ibid. sec. 4.

4. All vacancies happening by non-acceptance, death, resignation or removal out of the county, or disqualification of any of
