

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 9, sec. 94. 1888, ch. 297.

154. The said commissioners shall cause to be posted in two public places in said village all ordinances enacted for the government of said village.

Ibid. sec. 95. 1888, ch. 297.

155. They may pass ordinances to preserve the health of the village; to prevent and remove nuisances; restrain or regulate the running at large of horses, cattle and geese within the limits of said village; to prohibit the firing of guns and pistols in the said village; to prohibit and disperse the tumultuous meetings of idle, dissolute and drunken persons; to provide for the mending of the public streets, and generally to provide for the regulation and good government and improvement of said village; and may enforce the observance thereof under such penalties, fines and forfeitures as they shall deem proper, not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence; and all such fines, penalties and forfeitures may be recovered before a justice of the peace by warrant, judgment and commitment, for a period not exceeding ten days, to the public jail of Charles county, in the same manner that commitments are made for fines imposed by the circuit courts of the State, on conviction for misdemeanor; but the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power at any time to remit or release the said fines, penalties and costs, or any part thereof, at their discretion; and any party fined or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture may, within five days after the same shall have been imposed and judgment recovered, supersede and stay the same for thirty days by giving ample personal security to the justice of the peace.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

1878, ch. 252.

156. The register of wills of Charles county is required to provide for and keep up a general index to all wills, bonds, guardian accounts, administration accounts, inventories, accounts of sales and releases that may be deposited in said office for record, and to demand and receive from any person depositing the same, the sum of ten cents for the special purpose of keeping up and continuing said general index in said office.
