

shall be traversed, nor in cases of presentment when an indictment is not found thereon, nor shall he receive more than one fee in the same case.

1878, ch. 142.

173. The county commissioners may allow the State's attorney for said county additional compensation in such cases as they shall deem just; provided, that such additional compensation shall in no case exceed the sum of fifty dollars; and provided further, that no additional compensation shall be allowed as aforesaid when the appearance fees allowed by law to said State's attorney amount to or exceed in any year the sum of nine hundred dollars, nor when such additional compensation, together with said fees, will exceed the sum of eight hundred dollars.

Ibid.

174. The State's attorney for Charles county shall in no case receive fee for compensation when he is not personally present or represented by other counsel acting in the trial of such case.

Ibid.

175. The several fees and allowances provided by the three preceding sections to be paid to the State's attorney, shall be due and payable to him in current money, by the county commissioners at their first meeting held after the adjournment of the respective terms of court at which the services were rendered.

SURVEYOR.

P. L. L., (1860.) art. 9, sec. 141.

176. The surveyor shall be entitled to four dollars a day for each day he may be engaged in the discharge of his duty as surveyor, either under warrants or orders from any court or in private surveys, and five cents a mile for every mile travelled from his house to the line to be surveyed, and returning thereto.

Ibid. sec. 142.

177. The said surveyor shall also be entitled to four dollars for each plat furnished by him; provided, he be not employed more than six hours in making said plat, and for any time longer than six hours employed thereon he shall be entitled to a pro rata allowance.
