

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 10, sec. 21.

19. If any person shall sell or dispose of any liquor, or any other thing, to any inmate of said almshouse, he shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of twenty-five dollars.

Ibid. sec. 22.

20. If any person shall purchase any matter or thing whatsoever which shall belong to said almshouse from any of the poor contained therein, he shall, upon conviction thereof in the circuit court, forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of twenty dollars, to be applied to the use of the said trustees.

Ibid. sec. 23.

21. The county commissioners, at the time of making their annual levy, shall levy such sum of money as the trustees of the poor, or a majority of them, deem necessary for the support of the almshouse and out-pensioners, to be paid to the trustees of the poor or their order, or the order of a majority of them, under their common seal.

Ibid. sec. 24.

22. The said trustees shall apply the money so levied, to and for the use, benefit and charge of maintaining the poor, in purchasing provisions and other necessaries for their use and labor, for providing men and women servants, and purchasing materials for the use and employment of all poor who shall be able to labor.

1862, ch. 324.

23. They may, out of the money so levied, keep any number of out-pensioners they may think proper; provided, that no out-pension shall be allowed to any person who is not a fit subject to be received into the almshouse; and provided further, that a full and accurate list of the number of all out-pensioners shall be kept by districts, and the amount paid to each one shall be made out and included in the annual statement of their accounts to the county commissioners, as required in the succeeding section.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 10, sec. 26.

24. They shall, under the penalty of fifty dollars each, make out and render to the county commissioners at their first meeting
