

of any of the defendants in any judgment or decree herein mentioned, the plaintiff in any such judgment or decree shall at any time within twelve years from the date of the judgment or decree, upon a suggestion supported by affidavit of the death or marriage of any of said defendants, be entitled to have an execution or attachment issued against the defendant still alive, and such execution or attachment may be laid on any goods, chattels, lands and tenements of any of said remaining defendants; provided, that at any time before the expiration of twelve years from the date of any such judgment or decree, or in case of the death or marriage of any defendant in the judgment, the plaintiff shall have right to have a writ of scire facias to renew or revive the same, and on judgments of justices of the peace duly recorded in the clerk's office, such writ of scire facias may be issued out of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, or the circuit court of the county, as the case may be, as if said judgment had been originally rendered by said court, and on all such judgments or decrees the plaintiff may have more than one attachment or execution to be laid in the hands of different persons, or levied on other property or effects than that taken under the first, though the first be still outstanding; provided, that but one satisfaction of the debt or demand shall be made, and that it shall be in the discretion of the court in all such cases, whether any costs, and if any, what amount of costs shall be allowed on the subsequent attachments or other executions; the provisions of this section shall apply also to attachments or executions directed to a county different from that where the judgment or decree was rendered, or to or from the city of Baltimore.

Court of Appeals.

1892, ch. 521.

30. Any judge of the Court of Appeals, or any judge of a circuit court, or any judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore city, who shall be connected by consanguinity or affinity with any party to a cause within the third degree, counting down from a common ancestor to the more remote, shall be disqualified from sitting in such cause.
