

or property, or any acquittance or receipt either for money or property, with intention to defraud any person whomsoever, or shall utter or publish as true, any false, forged, altered or counterfeited deed, will, testament or codicil, bond, writing obligatory, bill of exchange, promissory note for the payment of money or property, or endorsement or assignment of any bond, writing obligatory, bill of exchange, promissory note for the payment of money or property, acquittance or receipt for money or property, shall be deemed a felon, and on being convicted thereof, shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than five nor more than ten years; provided, that nothing contained in this section shall in any manner affect any cases now pending, or any violations of the law which have heretofore occurred, but all such cases and violations shall be prosecuted to a conclusion as if the law hereby repealed were still in force.

40 A. Whenever any person, association or union of workmen have adopted, or shall hereafter adopt for their protection any label, trade-mark or form of advertisement announcing and denoting that goods to which such label, trade-mark or form of advertisement shall or may be attached, were manufactured by such person or by a member or members of such association or union, it shall not be lawful for any person or corporation to counterfeit or imitate such label, trade-mark or form of advertisement; every person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction by any court having criminal jurisdiction be punished by imprisonment in the city or county jail for not less than three months nor more than one year or by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Ibid.

40 B. Every person, corporation or association who shall use any counterfeit or imitation of any label, trade-mark or form of advertisement of any such person, union or association, knowing the same to be counterfeit or imitation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction by any court having criminal jurisdiction, be punished by imprisonment in the city or
