

1890, ch. 619.

92 B. Any agent, factor, consignee or commission merchant who shall fail to require the deposit named in the preceding section, or who shall fail to deliver to the transportation agent or carrier within forty eight hours after the same shall be returned to him, any vessels that may be returned to him by purchasers as prescribed by the preceding section, shall forthwith forfeit to the owner or owners thereof, or to the person or persons entitled to receive the same the full market value of such vessels, which sum so forfeited shall be added to and be considered a part of the price at which the merchandise contained in such vessels had been sold; and any agent, factor, consignee or commission merchant who shall refuse to pay over to the owner or person entitled to receive the same within five days after demand has been made therefor, any sum or sums so forfeited for such vessels, shall be subject to the penalty provided in section 92 c of this article.

Ibid.

92 c. Every agent, factor, consignee or commission merchant within twenty-four hours after sale shall have been made by him of any farm products or articles consigned to him for sale by any person within this State, shall transmit to the consignor thereof a full account of sale, which shall contain the amount and price of the articles so sold, as well as the name and address of the purchaser thereof; said address shall give the city, street and number of house or place of business of such purchaser, and any agent, consignee or commission merchant who shall refuse or neglect to comply with any provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of five dollars for each and every offense, together with the costs of prosecution.

Fraud-False Insignia.

1890, ch. 214.

97 A. Any person who shall wilfully wear the insignia or rosette of the military order of the loyal legion of the United States, or badge or button of the Grand Army of the Republic, or use the same to obtain aid or assistance within this State, unless he shall be entitled to use or wear the same under the constitution and by-laws, rules and regulations of such organization, shall be
