

out State and local licenses therefor, issued as hereinafter provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

1892, ch. 596.

107 E. All persons, both principals and agents, who shall by circular, handbill, newspaper or in any other manner advertise any such sales as those referred to in the section last preceding, before proper licenses shall be issued to the vendor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Ibid.

107 F. It shall be the duty of every itinerant vendor, whether principal or agents before commencing business, to take out a State license and local license in the manner hereinafter set forth, but nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any municipal corporation or board of county commissioners to pass such ordinances or orders relative to itinerant vendors as may be permissible under the general law or under their respective charters or powers.

Ibid.

107 G. Every itinerant vendor desiring to do business in this State, shall deposit with the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas in the city of Baltimore, or the clerks of the circuit courts in the counties, the sum of five hundred dollars as a special deposit; upon application in proper form, and the payment of a further sum of one hundred dollars as a State license fee, the said clerk shall issue to him an itinerant vendor's license, authorizing him to do business in this State in conformity with the provisions of this sub-title for the term of one year from the date thereof, or a proportional part of said sum for any fractional part of a year not less than one month, and all licenses so issued shall be made to expire on the first day of May next succeeding the date of their issues. Every license shall set forth a copy of the application upon which it is granted. Such license shall not be transferable, nor give authority to more than one person to sell
