

goods as an itinerant vendor, either by agent or clerk, or in any other way than in his own proper person, but any licensee may have the assistance of one or more persons in conducting his business, who shall have authority to aid that principal but not to act for or without him.

1892, ch. 596.

107 H. All applications for licenses shall be sworn to, shall disclose the names and residences of the owners or parties in whose interest said business is conducted, and shall be kept on file by the clerk of the court; and a record shall be kept by him of all licenses issued upon such applications. All files and records, both of the clerk of the court and of the respective clerks to the county commissioners or the clerk or officer designated to collect license fees by any incorporated town or city in this State, shall be in convenient form and open for public inspection.

Ibid.

107 I. Before selling under said State license, every itinerant vendor shall exhibit the same to the clerk to the county commissioners, or to the clerk or officer designated to collect license fees by any incorporated town or city in this State where he proposes to make sales. And upon payment to said clerk or officer of a further local license fee to be ascertained in the manner provided in the following section, and the proof of payment of all such other license fees, if any, as are legally chargeable upon local sales, the clerk or officer shall endorse upon it the words "Local License Fees Paid," and shall affix his official signature, together with the date of such endorsement. Any failure to obtain a local license, if any, and for proper endorsements made on the said license, shall be subjected to the same penalty as though no State license had been issued.

Ibid.

107 K. Any itinerant vendor, before making any sales of such goods, wares and merchandise, shall furnish to the clerk or officers designated in section 107 I, where any goods, wares and merchandise are kept or to be kept or exposed for sale or sold by him or them, a true statement of the average quantity and value
