

1892, ch. 419.

118 E. Any person or persons found guilty of a violation of section 118 D shall, upon conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than three years, or imprisoned in the jail of the county or the city of Baltimore, as the case may be, in which the offense was committed, for any definite period, not less than six months, and shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Fraud—Upon Turnpikes.

1890, ch. 442.

118 F. If any person or persons shall, with intent to defraud any turnpike or other company authorized by law to receive tolls for use of its roads, pass through any private gate or bars, or along any grounds near said road, to avoid any tollgate and escape payment of tolls, or shall practice any fraudulent means to lessen and avoid the payment of any just tolls, or shall refuse to pay tolls he is bound by law to pay, each and every such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one nor more than twenty-five dollars, and upon failure to pay said fine shall be imprisoned not more than five days; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prohibit persons from passing upon any turnpike or toll road from one point to another between the gates upon said pike or road, nor shall prohibit persons owning lands adjacent to any tollgate from using or crossing the same for their own private purpose.

Fraud—Warehouse, Storage and Elevator Receipts.

119 A. If any person entrusted with any money, drafts or checks, as advances against any grain or other merchandise purchased and stored in any elevator in the city of Baltimore or elsewhere, and for which certificates or receipts have been turned into such elevator, or delivered to the parties with whom the same is stored, to be shipped or transported from the city of Baltimore to the purchaser of said grain or other merchandise, shall for his own benefit and in violation of good faith neglect or refuse to deliver to the party so entrusting him with said money
