

1890, ch. 496.

146. Any person or persons or body corporate being a manufacturer, dealer, vendor as aforesaid, or any other person or persons or body corporate violating the provisions of the preceding section, shall upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, be fined in a sum of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense, or imprisoned in jail for not less than five nor more than thirty days in default of payment of said fine.

Health—Salesladies, Chairs for.

1896, ch 147.

147 A. All proprietors or owners of any retail, jobbing or wholesale dry goods store, notions, millinery or any other business where any female help are employed for the purpose of serving the public in the capacity of clerks or salesladies, shall provide a chair or stool for each one of such female help or clerks, in order that during such period as they are not actively engaged in making sales or taking stock they may have an opportunity to rest. Any such owner or proprietor who shall neglect to obey the provisions of this section, shall be considered to have committed a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in an amount not less than ten dollars, and not exceeding one hundred dollars for the first offense; and in the event said owner or proprietor shall continue to disobey the provisions of this section, he shall be subjected to a fine at the rate of one dollar a day, daily, for every chair he fails to so furnish his said employes.

Health—Schools.

1894, ch. 524.

147 B. Boards of school commissioners in every city and county of the State shall provide suitable and convenient water closets or outhouses for each of the schools under their official jurisdiction, not less than two for each school or building, when both sexes are in attendance in their respective school districts, with separate means of access for each; and unless placed at a remote distance, one from the other, the approaches or walks thereto shall be separated by a substantial close fence, not less than seven feet high; and it shall be the duty of the said com-