

1890, ch. 470.

209 c. Any person who obtains any spirituous or fermented liquors from any other person licensed to sell the same for any minor or person under twenty-one years of age, knowing him to be such, to be drunk by said minor or person under twenty-one years of age, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

Minors—Convict.

1892, ch. 311.

209 d. Minors under the age of sixteen years upon conviction of any offense punishable by imprisonment may, in the discretion of the court or justice of the peace, instead of imprisonment in the place provided for in case of offenders generally, be sentenced to imprisonment in any house of refuge or other like institution within the State under police regulation; provided, the term of imprisonment does not extend beyond minority, and all existing laws in relation to the sentences of convict minors are hereby repealed.

Obscene Publications.

1894, ch. 271.

220. If any person shall bring or cause to be brought into this State for sale or exhibition, or shall sell, lend, give away or offer to give away, or show or have in his or her possession with intent to sell or give away, or to exhibit, show, advertise or otherwise offer, for, loan, gift, sale or distribution, any lewd, obscene or indecent book, magazine, pamphlet, newspaper, story paper, writing paper, picture, card, drawing or photograph, or any article or instrument of indecent or immoral use, or shall design, copy, draw, photograph, print, utter, publish or prepare such book, picture, card, drawing, paper or other article, or shall write or print or cause to be written or printed, any circular, advertisement or notice of any kind, or giving information orally, stating, when, where, how or of whom, or by what means, such a lewd, indecent or obscene article or thing, can be purchased, seen or obtained, shall in every such case be guilty of a mis-
