

or held for use, or to be sold, when the same, instead of or in addition to the manner of redemption therein described, is to be or may be presented to or redeemed by the person or association of persons selling, bartering or trading the goods, wares or merchandise as in said section set forth, at any other place than that where said sale, barter or trade was made, or in any manner than by something certain and known to the purchaser at the time of said sale, barter or purchase; provided, however, that nothing contained in this or the preceding section is intended to prevent any manufacturer from offering any gift or present to any purchaser of his products.

1898, ch. 207.

263 c. Any person or association of persons violating any of the provisions of the two preceding sections of this article, or aiding, abetting or assisting in said violation, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of this State or court of competent jurisdiction therein, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense, and for a second or repeated violation of said sections may, in addition to said fines be imprisoned in the house of correction or in the city or county jail, as the case may be, for not less than one month nor more than six months.

Vagrants and Tramps.

1894, ch. 481.

276 A. The officers and board of directors of the Friendly Inn of Baltimore City, and the officers and directors and managers of any other charitable corporation heretofore formed, or which may be hereafter formed, under either the general incorporation law of this State or by special act, for the charitable purpose, in whole or in part, of supplying food and lodging to the needy without demanding or receiving compensation in money therefor, may, and the said officers, directors and managers are hereby authorized and empowered to require any person applying to them for, and receiving from them, either food or lodging in any house, home or building maintained by the said charitable corporation, to perform within twenty-four hours thereafter a reasonable amount of labor in return therefor, provided that the