

law, as to white females on the House of the Good Shepherd of the city of Baltimore.

1894, ch. 187.

329 B. All courts and justices of the peace are hereby authorized and empowered to commit colored females to said corporations, for like causes, in like manner and for like terms as they are now by law authorized to commit white females to the "House of Good Shepherd" of the city of Baltimore, and the judge of the criminal court, the president of the board of police commissioners and the marshal of police of the city of Baltimore shall, at such times as they think proper, visit and inspect the said institution.

House of Refuge.

1892, ch. 396.

353. The estate and concerns of said corporation shall be managed and conducted by the twenty-four managers, of whom ten shall be elected by the members of the association, and ten appointed by the mayor and city council of Baltimore, and four shall be appointed by the Governor, in the month of February annually.

House of Refuge—Female.

1890, ch. 435.

373 A. Every person who has paid, or shall hereafter pay to the funds of said institution, fifty dollars in any one year, or ten dollars annually for the term of six years, shall be a member for life; and every person paying any sum not less than five dollars, shall be for one year next after such payment a member of said institution, and the treasurer's book shall be prima facie evidence of such membership; but permanent members may be elected by the directors from time to time on such terms as the directors may prescribe.

State Penitentiary.

1892, ch. 44.

393. The warden of the penitentiary shall annually appoint, subject to the approval of the board of directors, an assistant warden, a bookkeeper, physician and matron, and as many
